COMMISSIONER'S FINDINGS OF FACT, CONCLUSIONS OF LAW AND ORDER

1. Edward D. Jones & Company, L.P. ("EDJ") is a Missouri-registered investment adviser and broker-dealer with a business address of 12555 Manchester Road, St. Louis, Missouri 63131. EDJ is registered with the Central Registration Depository ("CRD") and has CRD number 250.

4. From November 2, 2007 to April 14, 2009, Ray was a signatory on at least two bank accounts for FPD at First State Bank ("FSB") in Missouri. A check of Ray's application for registration in Missouri indicates no disclosure of FPD as an outside business activity 11.
5. Ray was registered in Missouri with EDJ from October 17, 2003 through December 24, 2008. An entry on Ray's CRD by EDJ states that "Ray was permitted to resign during the course of a compliance investigation into concerns of misappropriation of funds from client accounts. . .”

6. Ray's termination from EDJ was effective as of December 9, 2008.
7. While at EDJ, Ray was the agent of record for several Missouri customers. From 2006 until late 2008, Ray misappropriated funds in excess of three hundred fifty thousand dollars ($350,000) from their EDJ accounts.
8. In late 2008 and early 2009, EDJ provided the following information to the Enforcement Section:
 - a. in or around late November, 2008, the branch office administrator (“BOA”) in Ray's office raised concerns with EDJ representatives about Ray's activities in a customer's account;
 - b. when questioned by EDJ representatives, Ray admitted misappropriating funds without the authorization or knowledge of EDJ or the customers;
 - c. these funds were misappropriated, in part, through the use of forged Letters of Authorization (“LOAs”); and
 - d. Ray opened a checking account for FPD at First State Bank of Sarcoxie without the authorization or knowledge of the other FPD developers on October 17, 2007.

[1] In accordance with FINRA Rule 3040, prior to participating in any private securities transactions, “an associated person shall provide written notice to the [broker-dealer] member with which he is associated describing in detail the proposed transaction and the person's proposed role therein and stating whether he has received or may receive selling compensation in connection with the transaction. . .” In the case of a transaction in which the associated person has received or may receive selling compensation, the broker-dealer must first approve or disapprove the person's participation in the proposed transaction and, if approved, “the transaction shall be recorded on the books and records of the [broker-dealer] member and the member shall supervise the person's participation in the transaction as if the transaction were executed on behalf of the member.” See FINRA Rule 3040, adopted by SR-NASD-85-28 eff. Nov. 12, 1985, as amended.

9. In 2009, after an investigation into Ray's activities, EDJ paid over seven hundred thousand dollars ($700,000) to eleven customers for their losses, including amounts for lost interest, trade losses, commissions, fees, costs and tax liability.
10. Ray engaged in dishonest or unethical practices in the securities business, among other things, by:
 - a. failing to follow customer instructions;
 - b. failing to advise EDJ of Ray's outside business activity in FPD;
 - c. forging customers' names on documents filed with EDJ;
 - d. transferring misappropriated funds to bank accounts controlled by Ray; and

- e. using misappropriated funds for Ray's personal benefit.
11. In connection with the purchase, offer or sale of securities, Ray failed to disclose the following material facts, among others, to these Missouri customers:
 - a. that Ray failed to follow the policies and procedures at his employing broker-dealer;/p>
 - b. that Ray forged customers' names on LOAs to transfer funds from customers' accounts;

 - e. that Ray forged a customer's name on a LOA to transfer funds to an individual to whom Ray owed money; and/or
 - f. that Ray used misappropriated funds for Ray's personal benefit.
12. Ray's activities constitute violations of Section 409.5-501 and are grounds to issue a cease and desist order against Ray. In addition, these activities are grounds to bar, revoke, suspend, condition or limit Ray's registration in Missouri pursuant to Section 409.4-412(b), (c), (d)(2) and (d)(13), RSMo. (Cum. Supp. 2009).
